Calling all Leaders!

The Forum is a unique career leadership training program for individuals with disabilities ages 16—21. Participants are selected from their local communities to cultivate leadership, citizenship, social and career development skills during the leadership conference.

This is a life-changing opportunity.

What are the goals of the Forum?

1. Develop leadership skills to ensure that all youth with disabilities will realize their full potential
2. Develop career strategies that increase the youth's potential for employment
3. Promote inclusion of people with disabilities in all aspects of society
4. Participate in policymaking or practices that affect young people with disabilities

What is the agenda?

1. Learning and applying leadership principles
2. Understanding the disability experience and sharing resources
3. Building independent living skills and setting career goals
4. Developing advocacy skills

What does it cost to attend the Forum?

The Forum is available to the student delegates at NO COST!

Where is the Forum held?

The Forum is held at the University of Missouri—Columbia campus

How do I apply for the Forum?

Complete an application. This application includes an application form, resume, and three references. Visit:

What do former delegates have to say about the Forum?

"When my mom dropped me off, I can remember telling her I didn't think I wanted to stay! Four days later when my mom returned, she tells me I had a whole different attitude! She is right! It was an amazing experience. This Forum changed my life!"

"We really shared our experiences with each other and learned from each other."
